INTRODUCTION

All Money Matters are trading styles of All Money Matters Limited. All Money Matters Limited (company number 08580309) whose registered office is at Cheshire House, Gorsey Lane, Widnes, Cheshire, WA8 0RP is committed to protecting and respecting your privacy.

All Money Matters Limited is the data controller in respect of your personal data. You can contact us by e-mailing us here: waynesmethurst@allmoneymatters.co.uk or writing to us at All Money Matters, The Base, Dallam Lane, Warrington, WA2 7NG.

WHY SHOULD YOU READ THIS DOCUMENT?

During the course of dealing with us we will ask you to provide us with detailed personal information relating to your existing circumstances, your financial situation and, in some cases, your health and family health history (your personal data).

This document is important as it allows us to explain to you what we will need to do with your personal data, and the various rights you have in relation to your personal data.

WHAT DO WE MEAN BY "YOUR PERSONAL DATA"?

Your personal data means any information that describes or relates to your personal circumstances.

Your personal data may identify you directly, for example your name, address, date of birth or National Insurance number. Your personal data may also identify you indirectly, for example your employment situation, your physical and mental health history or any other information that could be associated with your cultural or social identity.

In the context of providing you with assistance in relation to your mortgage, finance and insurance requirements your personal data may include:

- Title, names, date of birth, gender, nationality, civil/marital status, contact details, addresses and documents that are necessary to verify your identity
- Employment and remuneration information, including salary/bonus schemes/overtime/sick pay/other benefits and your employment history
- Bank account details, tax information, loans and credit commitments, personal credit history
- Sources of income and expenditure, family circumstances and details of dependants
- Any pre-existing mortgage and insurance products and the terms and conditions relating to these

THE BASIS UPON WHICH OUR FIRM WILL DEAL WITH YOUR PERSONAL DATA

When we speak with you about your mortgage, finance or insurance requirements we do so on the basis that both parties are entering a contract for the supply of services.

In order to perform that contract and to arrange the products you require we have the right to use your personal data for the purposes detailed below.

Our Customer Privacy Notice

Alternatively, either in the course of initial discussions with you or when the contract between us has come to an end for whatever reason, we have the right to use your personal data provided it is in our legitimate business interest to do so and your rights are not affected. For example, we may need to respond to requests from mortgage lenders, finance lenders and insurance providers and our compliance service provider relating to the advice we have given to you, or to make contact with you to seek feedback on the service you received.

On occasion, we will use your personal data for contractual responsibilities we may owe our Regulator, The Financial Conduct Authority, or for wider compliance with any legal or regulatory obligation to which we might be subject. In such circumstances, we would be processing your personal data in order to meet a legal, compliance or other regulatory obligation to which we are subject.

THE BASIS UPON WHICH WE WILL PROCESS CERTAIN PARTS OF YOUR PERSONAL DATA

If you have parental responsibility for children under the age of 16 it is also very likely that we will record information on our systems that relates to those children and potentially, to their Special Data.

The arrangement of certain types of mortgages may involve disclosure by you to us of information relating to historic or current criminal convictions or offences (together "Criminal Disclosures"). This is relevant to mortgage related activities such as underwriting, claims and fraud management.

We will use special data and any criminal disclosures in the same way as your personal data generally, as set out in this Privacy Notice.

Information on special data and criminal disclosures must be capable of being exchanged freely between insurance intermediaries such as our firm, and insurance providers, to enable customers to secure the important insurance protection that their needs require.

HOW DO WE COLLECT YOUR PERSONAL DATA?

We will collect and record your personal data from a variety of sources, but mainly directly from you. You will usually provide information during the course of our initial meetings or conversations with you to establish your circumstances and needs and preferences in relation to mortgages and insurance. You will provide information to us verbally and in writing, including email.

We may also obtain some information from third parties, for example credit checks, information from your employer and searches of information in the public domain such as the voters roll. We use technology solutions to assist in the collection of your personal data such as software that is able to verify your credit status. We will only do this if we have consent from you for us or our nominated processor to access your information in this manner. With regards to electronic ID checks we would not require your consent but will inform you of how such software operates and the purpose for which it is used.

Our Customer Privacy Notice

WHAT HAPPENS TO YOUR PERSONAL DATA WHEN IT IS DISCLOSED TO US?

In the course of handling your personal data, we will:

- Record and store your personal data in our paper files and on our computer systems (websites, email, hard drives, and cloud facilities). This information can only be accessed by employees within our firm and only when it is necessary to provide our service to you and to perform any administration tasks associated with or incidental to that service
- Submit your personal data to mortgage lenders/commercial lenders and/or insurance providers both in paper form and on-line via a secure portal. The provision of this information to a third party is essential in allowing us to progress any enquiry or application made on your behalf and to deal with any additional questions or administrative issues that lenders and providers may raise
- Use your personal data for the purposes of responding to any queries you may have in relation to any mortgage/finance product or insurance policy you may take out or to inform you of any developments in relation to those products and/or policies of which we might become aware

SHARING YOUR PERSONAL DATA

From time to time your personal data will be shared with:

- Mortgage lenders/finance lenders and insurance providers
- Third parties who we believe will be able to assist us with your enquiry or application, or who are able to support your needs as identified. These third parties will include but may not be limited to, our compliance advisers, product specialists, estate agents and providers of professional services such as estate planning, conveyancing & surveys (in each case where we believe this to be required due to your particular circumstances)

In each case, your personal data will only be shared for the purposes set out in this customer privacy notice, i.e. to progress your mortgage and insurance enquiry and to provide you with our professional services.

Please note that this sharing of your personal data does not entitle such third parties to send you marketing or promotional messages. It is shared to ensure we can adequately fulfil our responsibilities to you and as otherwise set out in this Customer Privacy Notice.

We do not envisage that the performance by us of our service will involve your personal data being transferred outside of the European Economic Area.

SECURITY AND RETENTION OF YOUR PERSONAL DATA

Your privacy is important to us and we will keep your personal data secure in accordance with our legal responsibilities. We will take reasonable steps to safeguard your personal data against it being accessed unlawfully or maliciously by a third party.

We also expect you to take reasonable steps to safeguard your own privacy when transferring information to us, such as not sending confidential information over unprotected email, ensuring email attachments are password protected or encrypted and only using secure methods of postage when original documentation is being sent to us.

Our Customer Privacy Notice

Your personal data will be retained by us either electronically or in paper format for a minimum of six years or in instances whereby we have legal right and appropriate to do so we will retain records indefinitely.

YOUR RIGHTS IN RELATION TO YOUR PERSONAL DATA

You can:

- Request copies of your personal data that is under our control
- Ask us to further explain how we use your personal data
- Ask us to correct/delete your personal data
- Require us to restrict or stop using your personal data (details as to the extent to which we can do this will be provided at the time of any such request)
- Ask us to send an electronic copy of your personal data to another organisation should you wish
- Change the basis of any consent you may have provided to enable us to market to you in the future (including withdrawing any consent in its entirety)

HOW TO MAKE CONTACT WITH OUR FIRM IN RELATION TO THE USE OF YOUR PERSONAL DATA

If you have any questions or comments about this document, or wish to make contact in order to exercise any of your rights set out within it please contact Wayne Smethurst using the details in the introduction section.

If we feel we have a legal right not to deal with your request, or to action it in different way to how you have requested, we will inform you of this at the time.

You should also make contact with us as soon as possible on you becoming aware of any unauthorised disclosure of Your Personal Data so that we may investigate and fulfil our own regulatory obligations. If you have any concerns or complaints as to how we have handled Your Personal Data you may lodge a complaint with the UK's data protection regulator, the ICO, who can be contacted through their website at <https://ico.org.uk/global/contact-us/> or by writing to Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire, SK9 5AF.
